The Millwood Shrine Club and the South Arkansas Shrine Club (El Dorado) will combine as hosts Saturday to a Shrine Ceremonial in Hope that promises to be one of the most outstanding events seen here in a number of years.

Millwood Shrine Club President Dr. George Wright estimates the crowd of Shriners and their ladies will be at least 350. The famous Shrine parade will have 25 units, and people from all over the area will gather to witness it.

Counties in the Millwood Club are Hempstead, Howard, Lafayette, Little River, and Sevier.

Democratic Radio Reply at 6 Tonight

Democratic leaders in Hempstead County said that they would answer over Radio Station KXAR at 6 p. m. Monday, July 22, what they termed "the foolish statements made by Republican radio announcer Haskell Jones recently concerning state politics." Local Democrats accuse Jones of being inconsistent in supporting Winthrop Rockefeller for Governor of Arkansas in 1964, and Senator Barry Goldwater for president of the United States in 1964.

It could not be learned immediately today who the Democratic radio spokesman would be over KXAR but informed sources said that Judge James H. Pilkinton of Hope would probably be the one to answer Jones.

Local Republicans have said that they plan to open a headquarters in Hope to support Rockefeller for Governor and Goldwater for President. Rockefeller has been termed as a liberal in most circles, and Goldwater is the national leader of the conservative wing of the Republican Party.

Local Democrats say privately that they consider Jones' activity on Winthrop Rockefeller's behalf "premature" and against the best interest of Hempstead County. "Who knows?" one Democrat said today, "we may have a candidate for governor from Hope in 1964." I do not believe that Haskell is going to get very far in his drive for Winthrop Rockefeller in this area as long as the possibility exists that some Hope man may seek the Governorship of Arkansas next summer."

The Democratic program on KXAR Monday will be a 15-minute affair beginning at 6 p. m., as a public service feature of the station. The Republicans have been using the same period of time over KXAR each Tuesday evenings.

Arkansan Killed in Plane Wreck

PORT ISABEL, Tex. (AP) — A private plane crashed into the Gulf of Mexico Saturday night, apparently killing the president of an Arkansas insurance company and one of his chief assistants.

Missing were G. Charles Childre, 48, president of the First Security Life Insurance Co. and the Bankers Life Insurance Co., both of Little Rock, and also president of the Texas Continental Life Insurance Co. of San Antonio, Tex.; and E. W. Samuels, 60, treasurer of the Texas company.

Childre maintained residences in Little Rock and San Antonio. He bought the twin-engine plane Saturday from a San Antonio gas company. He flew to Brownsville to confer with two of his agents. They left the airport there about 10:40 p.m.

A fishing boat sighted the wreckage and the Coast Guard reported finding parts of a body on a seat floating in the crash area. Cause of the crash was not known.

Keeper of Sex Pets Is Now on Trial

By HAL R. COOPER
LONDON (AP)—The crown put Dr. Stephen Ward on trial before a jury of 11 men and a woman today and accused him of keeping pretty girls as sex pets for hire to men.

Christine Keeler, wearing a gold suit, was the first witness for the prosecution. The red-haired party girl's relationships with a British Cabinet minister and a Soviet Embassy aide came near to toppling Prime Minister Macmillan's Conservative government.

As she had done before, Miss Keeler denied a prosecution claim in historic Old Bailey court that she ever went to bed with the 50-year-old society osteopath. But she said it was with a man introduced by Ward that she first committed an act of prostitution. Prosecutor Mervyn Griffith-Jones told the jury Ward took a cut from the immoral earnings of Miss Keeler, 21, Marilyn (Mandy) Rice-Davies, 18, and other girls who sold themselves to wealthy Britons.

The prosecutor said Ward held Christine under a spell.

"Christine Keeler was completely dominated in some curious way, under the influence of Ward and being used by him, not only to make a little cash from intercourse she was having from time to time with men who visited his flat, but also to procure girls for his own satisfaction," Griffith-Jones said.

The prosecutor said Miss Keeler sought out girls for Ward and brought them to him.

The prosecutor said the high jinks took place in two apartments Ward rented in London.

A center of the vice, Griffith-Jones asserted, was a cottage on the Cliveden estate of Lord Astor, son of Virginia-born Nancy Lady Astor, in Buckinghamshire.

Ward was brought to trial on five charges—basically, living on the earnings of prostitution by Miss Keeler, Miss Rice-Davies and other girls who used his flats as a base of operations.

The osteopath, who pleaded innocent, could be sentenced, if convicted, to as much as 25 years in prison by the presiding judge, Justice Sir Archie Marshall.

The Purple Martins Are Gone? Some Stragglers Try to Confuse Issue

In last Thursday's edition The Star reported that the purple martins had left us on July 17 — last Wednesday—for their annual migration to South America, not to return until next March.

Immediately there were three developments:

1. David Van Landingham of Spring Hill (Hope Rte. 1) reported he has a two-apartment martin house filled with baby martins 8 to 10 days old.

2. On Saturday, July 20, one lone martin circled the editor's 16-apartment martin house — after we had written and published that they had all gone. Either he had been out on the town and missed the mass flight, or else he came back to watch the eclipse.

3. Sunday the editor got a letter from Mrs. Wm. R. King of

Governors Eliminate Key Committee

By JACK BELL
MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — By a 33-16 vote that largely followed party lines, the 55th annual Governors Conference submerged its controversy over civil rights today by agreeing to wipe out its resolutions committee.

The vote came after Republicans attempted to kill off what they called a "gag rule" requiring unanimity for adoption of all resolutions, a circumstance that would have barred any civil rights action.

Democratic Gov. Grant Sawyer of Nevada moved, as a substitute, to eliminate the resolution committee altogether. This presumably would restrict governors to discussion and to reports of the conference's regular committees, none of which is considering a civil rights matter at this time.

Thirty-three Democrats voted for Sawyer's proposal. It was opposed by 15 Republican governors and Democratic Gov. William A. Egan of Alaska.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, a potential candidate for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination, joined forces with Gov. Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon in an attempt to get the conference to act on the civil rights measure.

But Democrats stood solidly behind the efforts to head off any conference declaration on the matter at this point.

Gov. Albert Rosellini of Washington, chairman of the conference, announced after the vote that there will be a two-hour panel discussion of the civil rights question Tuesday afternoon.

At that session debate will be limited and presumably no action could be taken to put the conference on record.

Rockefeller said Sunday that Rosellini had the power to cut off any filibuster that might develop out of the controversy.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The politics-plagued 55th annual Governors' Conference got under way officially today with an attack by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller on a proposed rule which would bar action on civil rights.

The New York Republican governor assailed as a measure that would destroy the influence of the conference a Democratic-sponsored proposal to change the rules to require a unanimous vote for passage of any resolution. At present a two-thirds majority is required.

Mentioning the possibility of a Southern filibuster against the kind of civil rights resolutions he is offering, Rockefeller told his fellow state executives:

"It has been said that a discussion of civil rights would imperil this conference. I doubt that this is so. But I do know that a failure to discuss and resolve the question of civil rights will imperil our nation."

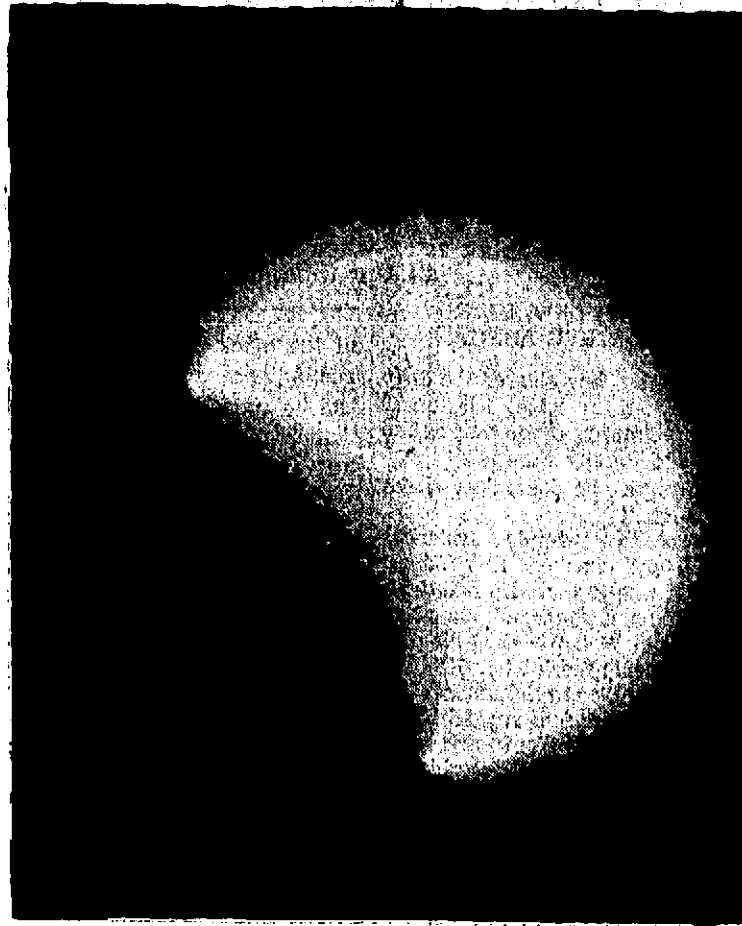

Governors who seated themselves at a rectangular table in a festooned meeting hall had scheduled a panel discussion of international trade and economic development. But first on the order of business was a vote on the controversial rules change.

Led by Rockefeller and Gov. Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon, Republicans sought to block the unanimity rule by a substitute under which resolutions could be adopted by a two-thirds vote after strictly limited discussion.

Rockefeller said that unless there is this opportunity to put the conference on record on controversial issues, future sessions will be "nothing more than social

Race Trouble Centers in N. Y. Area

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

About 500 pickets protested job discrimination at a Brooklyn construction site Monday, and New York police made mass arrests when the pickets refused to budge from the path of construction equipment.

The development followed a weekend in which racial tensions eased in most sections of the nation.

About 200 policemen, mounted and on foot, moved in on the pickets at the site of the Downstate Medical Center. The seized demonstrators went limp and police carried them into patrol wagons.

In another demonstration at the Rutgers housing project in Manhattan, 29 pickets lay down in front of the project gate and were arrested. This demonstration had the same object as the other.

A Negro minister, speaking to about 6,000 hymn-singing Negroes at a park in Brooklyn Sunday, had called for the demonstration.

The Rev. Gardner C. Taylor told the rally that "revolution has come to Brooklyn. I will expect to see you on the picket lines. Don't bring guns, just bring the explosive power for a just cause."

The rally was held in protest of alleged racial discrimination in construction projects financed by public funds. About 50 police watched over the rally but there was no incidents.

In an orderly demonstration at Charleston, about 300 Negroes marched to the downtown business area carrying signs against segregation and for job opportunities.

Mayor Palmer Gaillard announced that two racial meetings were held Friday and said another is scheduled for Tuesday.

At Cambridge, Md., integrationists called off further weekend demonstrations after a street crowd was dispersed Saturday night by National Guardsmen using tear gas and bayonets.

Two adults and nine minors were jailed in Ocala, Fla., as result of demonstrations Saturday night. Forty persons were arrested outside the Marion County jail where demonstrators gathered to protest the arrest of a Congress of Racial Equality leader.

A Memphis, Tenn., Negro attorney said he was shot at Saturday night as he was driving from Somerville, Tenn., where he represented Negro demonstrators who were arrested.

Negroes at Jackson, Tenn., have agreed to boycott downtown businesses and to cancel subscriptions to the Jackson Sun, a spokesman for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People said.

Mayor Martin K. Thomen Sr. of Orange, Tex., said all municipal facilities in his city will be segregated to conform with federal court rulings. He made the statement in response to inquiries from the Orange branch of the NAACP.

Eight Meet Death by Violence

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Eight persons died violently in Arkansas over the weekend, boosting the state's violent death toll to eleven for the week ended Sunday at midnight.

A family of three was killed near Mammoth Spring Saturday when their car went out of control and struck a bridge on Highway 63. The victims were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Henry of Hardy and their three-year-old daughter.

Mrs. Relna Ann Rich, 26, of Little Rock died Saturday as a result of injuries suffered in a traffic accident Tuesday at Ola. Her daughter Deborah, 4, was killed instantly in the accident.

Charles Alford, 55, of Van Buren died Saturday from injuries received in an accident Friday.

Mrs. Dan Love, 55, of near El Dorado, was killed in a head-on collision near El Dorado, Saturday.

Two others, both Negroes, died violently Saturday. Marion Ganes, 18, of Helena was electrocuted when he became entangled in power lines knocked down by severe thunderstorm at Helena.

Colvin Hill, 26, of El Dorado, was struck by a Rock Island freight train at El Dorado.

'Gypsy' Is Fine Story of Theater

AT THE SAENGER: "Gypsy," film story of Gypsy Rose Lee, queen of burlesque, and her mother; starring Rosalind Russell, Natalie Wood, and Karl Malden; in Technicolor; produced by Warner Brothers, based on the Broadway play.

In the picture playing at the Saenger through tonight (Monday) Hollywood has worked the strange transformation of turning a story about the ladies of burlesque into a family entertainment. It is a brilliant production that all can see, with heart-throb acting, entrancing music, and superb comedy.

Away from the big cities burlesque is a synonym for hooch shows in a traveling carnival — for no reason other than the fact that the average carnival is so very, very bad.

On the burlesque stage were trained all of the world's great comedians: Red Skelton, Phil Silvers — any name you think of today was yesterday's headliner in burlesque. There is an art in the exploitation of the human comedy of man versus woman that burlesque delights in, and in our generation two ladies

JFK Proposal Gives FCC Rail Strike Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy came up today with this plan for legislation to bar a railroad strike. Put the work rules dispute before the Interstate Commerce Commission for disposition.

The White House disclosed this much of the proposal in announcing that Kennedy's special message on the railroad situation would go to Congress at 3 p.m.

Press secretary Pierre Salinger read to newsmen this statement:

"The President at 3 p.m. (EDT) this afternoon will send to the Congress legislation which will refer those railroad work rules issues which are still in dispute to the Interstate Commerce Commission for prompt hearing and disposition.

"Provisions for employee security will be contained in any ICC order of approval.

"Unlike compulsory arbitration this proposal would preserve collective bargaining and give precedence to its solutions."

Salinger declined to go into any detail pending the actual release of the message, but it appeared clear that Kennedy would ask Congress to hold off any strike until the ICC has disposed of the case.

Salinger made his announcement after Kennedy had conducted a round of conferences with representatives of the railroads and the men who operate the trains, Democratic and Republican congressional leaders, and various labor leaders including George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO.

In these meetings, Kennedy outlined his legislative proposal, Salinger said.

Some Congress members said that as they understood the plan, the ICC might spend as much as two years studying the dispute.

Earlier, an industry spokesman had expressed belief that the only hope of averting a strike was enactment of compulsory arbitration of the dispute.

J. E. Wolfe, chief negotiator for the railroads, expressed this view at the White House. He said that he thinks President Kennedy shares this view.

Wolfe talked with newsmen after representatives of management and five railroad unions met Kennedy.

Wolfe said Kennedy intends to send a request to Congress this afternoon for legislation to avert a strike threatened for 12:01 a.m. on Tuesday of next week.

Wolfe said that is the time the railroads intend to put into effect work rule changes to eliminate what management calls feather-bidding or unneeded jobs, especially firemen on some diesel engines.

In the absence of legislation, most people had interpreted the true arranged last week by Kennedy as ending 12:01 a.m. Monday.

Wolfe explained, however, that

Broadcasters Opposing Limitation

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Broadcasters Association has filed a statement with the Federal Communications Commission in Washington opposing a proposed limitation of commercials in radio and television.

Don Whitney, secretary of the ABA, said the proposed FCC regulation would conform to the code of the National Association of Broadcasters and would limit commercials to not more than 18 minutes in one hour and an average of not more than 14 minutes an hour.

In its statement, the ABA said the regulation would cause a financial hardship on many small stations which depend on periodic advertising surges as a result of seasonal advertising, weekend advertising or day-time only advertising.

It also pointed out that a reduction of advertising revenues could lead to reductions in staff and as a result cut down on the efficiency of many stations.

Whitney said broadcasters throughout the nation were almost uniformly opposed to the regulation. He pointed out that the FCC had asked for comments from broadcasters on the proposed change.

Two Jailed for Theft of Watermelons

City Police have charged Calvin Jackson, 24, with reckless driving and for having no driver's license, following a chase of several miles last night.

Officers Milam, Martin of the City and Policeman Brewster arrested Jackson about an hour after he abandoned his auto and took to the fields. Also arrested was Harold Rushing, a passenger.

The chase started when officers received a call concerning the theft of watermelons in the Spring Hill area. Officers indicated both would be charged with stealing melons.

Local police also report that Willie Dean, 68, Negro, has been charged with assault with a deadly weapon. Officer Rowe said Dean fired last night at Calvin's place, a Negro night spot on N. Hazel. The shot missed its target.

Final Touch on Tentative Test Ban Plan

By PRESTON GROVER

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet sources said today a working party put finishing touches this morning on an East-West treaty banning nuclear tests in the air, outer space, and under water.

U.S. negotiator W. Averell Harriman was expected to initial it today or Tuesday and return to Washington Wednesday, sources in Washington said.

Unless Premier Khrushchev comes up with a last-minute hurdle, diplomats here regarded the treaty as virtually completed. Harriman, Britain's Lord Hallam and Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko met in the afternoon.

The meetings were resumed after a weekend break in an atmosphere of mounting optimism.

Western sources here indicated that only a last-minute obstacle — such as a Soviet demand for an accompanying nonaggression pact — could block a U.S.-British-Soviet accord to ban nuclear tests in the atmosphere, outer space and under water.

Harriman had an excellent opportunity Sunday night to sound out Khrushchev on any last-minute roadblocks.

the railroads would post notices Monday making the work rule changes effective 24 hours later.

Kennedy conferred for about 40 minutes this morning with representatives of the carriers and the five operating unions, but Wolfe made it clear that no headway was made toward a negotiated agreement.

Wolfe said Kennedy did not spell out for the representatives of management and the unions, the type of legislation he would ask.

Kennedy asked the management and union representatives to remain on a standby basis in case he desired to talk to them again before sending his message to Congress.

Kennedy met with the railroad and union negotiators after a breakfast conference with Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz. Later in the morning, he scheduled a conference with congressional leaders of both parties, presumably to tell them the nature of the legislation he has in mind.

gatherings."

"The proposed gag amendment, if adopted, would in my opinion ultimately destroy the stature, the influence and the importance of this conference as a creative force in our public life," he said.

Rockefeller, who has aspirations for his party's 1964 presidential nomination, said Sunday that the conference chairman, Democratic Gov. Albert D. Rosellini of Washington, had the power to cut off any filibuster that might develop out of the controversy.

Rosellini said on a television program Sunday night that he didn't have any such authority. Although he said Rockefeller might have been acting from political motives, Rosellini denied that he was acting similarly as Kennedy's chief unofficial representative at the conference.

Rosellini suggested after a caucus of 25 Northern Democratic governors that a move might be made to abolish all conference resolutions. This might be a substitute for a recommendation by the executive committee—which he heads, but on which Republicans outnumber Democrats 5-4—for a change in the rules requiring unanimous votes to adopt any resolution.

This would alter the present rule under which two-thirds of the governors voting could approve a resolution.

Democratic Gov. John Dempsey of Connecticut, smarting under Rockefeller's charges that the Democrats were trying to institute a gag rule, outlined a proposal under which the conference would abolish individual resolutions and consider only committee reports which could be adopted by a two-thirds majority. He said Gov. Grant Sawyer of Nevada had been selected to offer this substitute proposal.

Republican governors had their own substitute, drafted by Gov. Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon. Hatfield is regarded as a vice presidential nomination possibility if Rockefeller or some other Easterner heads his party's 1964 ticket. This substitute would permit the conference to take up any proposal which had been approved by its resolutions committee and approve it by a two-thirds majority.

The average piece of first-class mail is now handled nine or 10 times.

Letter To Mr. Feild

Editor The Star: Hempstead's state representative, Talbot Feild, Jr., has apparently turned a deaf ear to the suggestion that he tell the people of this county how he stands with the state administration.

Judging from news accounts, several members of the state legislature have been doing this all over Arkansas recently. For example, Reps. Hardy Croxton, Virgil Butler, G. D. Smith and others who are colleagues of Mr. Feild in the House, have either made speeches or written their views on the current situation in our state.

I share the views of Buster Royston that the people of Hope and Hempstead County should know who they continue to send to Little Rock to represent them and enact the laws that affect all the people of our state. Mr. Feild has served for many years and by now he should have formed an opinion as to his likes and dislikes.

Enlighten us, if you will, sir.

the theater raised that art to supreme heights — Ann Corio of Boston's Howard Theater, and Gypsy Rose Lee of New York's Minsky, which advertised "Burlesque in the Minsky Manor."

Speaking of Boston's Howard Theater, where Harvard students attended every change of program, I am reminded of the story of the out-of-town critic who berated Boston's chief censor for banning books, but letting the Howard Theater run forever.

"The Howard?" replied the censor, "But everybody knows what goes on in the Howard!"

Getting on with our review of "Gypsy," I saw the show at its opening here Sunday. Natalie Wood has the title role, but the power and the glory belong to Rosalind Russell, playing Gypsy's mother and guiding light; and to Karl Malden, as the mother's stern and persistent suitor.

And there's praise for Ann Jilliam, who plays Gypsy's younger sister, June Havoc; and especially for Paul Wallace in the male teen-ager role of Tulsa, singing and dancing the number "All I Need Is the Girl." This is a show stopper, and you make a note to look him up in the press book. Well, he ought to be a show-stopper in the film—he did the same job in the same show on Broadway for two years.

There are burlesque girls in "Gypsy," of course. But most of the time they are burlesquing burlesque.

Basically this is the story of a vaudeville mother, at a time when the talking movies have killed vaudeville, and she is trying to make stars out of her two daughters — although viewing burlesque through the blue eyes of a country parson attending a carnival sideshow.

"Remember, you're a lady," Rosalind Russell tells her daughters again and again. And they are ladies. But each in turn revolts against maternal tyranny.

Russia, Red China Plan Later Meet

By GEORGE SYVERTSEN

MOSCOW (AP)—Red China and the Soviet Union say they have agreed to meet—"some time later"—and make another try at settling their bitter ideological dispute. Diplomats in Moscow did not expect the meeting would be held soon.

The announcement made simultaneously Sunday in Peking and Moscow, coincided with a new Chinese attack on the Soviet Communist party. Peking accused it of trying to incite the Chinese people and party against Mao Tse-tung.

The Soviet-Chinese talks broke off Saturday. Premier Khrushchev took his first public notice of the Chinese delegation, giving it a farewell dinner.

The communiqué issued Sunday said the central committees of both Communist parties would set the place and time of the next meeting.

It reported that during the talks both sides "expounded their own views and stand on a series of important questions of principle concerning contemporary world developments, the international Communist movement and Sino-Soviet relations."

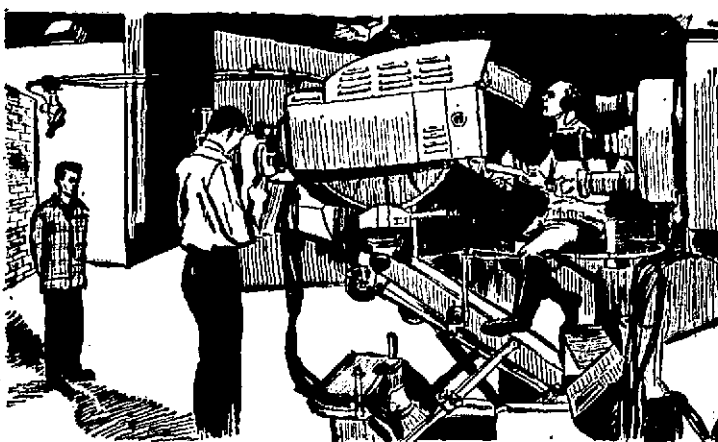

Western quarters interpreted this to mean Chinese spokesman Teng Hsiao-ping and Soviet theoretician Mikhail Suslov did little more since the meetings began July 5 than lecture each other.

Premier Khrushchev is expected to defend his stand and outline his strategy in the Communist power struggle at a meeting of East European Communist leaders opening in Moscow Wednesday.

SHORTY A 2-Minute Short Story

Copyright 1963 by Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Ray worked as an actor when he could, was hungry all the time.

BIRTH OF A STAR

By STEVE APRIL

As the bus boy cleared the dirty dishes from the table, a little girl said, "Mommy, doesn't this man look like Jimmy Stewart?"

"Why, yes, he does, dear—from this angle."

These two simple sentences completely changed Ray Jones' life. He was 19 then. He had drifted from an orphanage to a number of bad jobs. Wheeling his cart of dishes into the kitchen Ray examined his face in the mirror. His face, held a kind of rugged handsomeness, and from one side there was a faint resemblance to Jimmy Stewart.

Ray knew now what Fate had meant him to be — an "actor"! Ray had $83 in the bank. He spent half of that on corny pictures of himself, the rest going for books on acting, and history of the theatre. Most of what he read confused Ray, but he'd never been so happy.

Ray saved his money like mad and finally took a bus to Hollywood. Here he mingled with other movie hopefuls and it gave him a sense of belonging. He learned his photos were hammy, that he needed a composite—several different poses in one—to leave with casting agents. He ought to subscribe to an answering service, join a little theatre group, and enroll in an acting school.

Ray took a part-time job like all the other hopefuls did—to be free in case a work call came. And he spent his money for new pictures. While hanging around a drugstore frequented by actors Ray would phone his answering service, ask, "Ray Jones speaking. Any messages?" There never were, but Ray was happy—making the fruitless rounds of casting agents, talking to other actors, sharing beery daydreams.

But the little theatre group would only give him a non-speaking role—a butler, a doorman, a cop. Ray didn't mind, each role added to his resume on the back of his photos, stating he'd appeared in this and that play in "stock." He enrolled in an acting school where the director frankly told Ray he was wasting his money. Ray was a horrible actor.

In time, many of Ray's drug-store friends gave up their dreams, but Ray—who'd never made a cent as an actor—went on scripping, constantly having new pictures made.

By the time Ray was 25 he was a tall, gaunt man with a haunting expression, at all times carrying a thick scrapbook full of his pictures.

He hitched a ride across the continent and began to haunt the actors' bars on Broadway. Ray worked part-time when he could, was hungry all the time, and still made the rounds of the casting agents. Actually he was happy that he never got a job, for any stage job would have shown him the truth—he wasn't an actor.

One summer he was so hungry he took a part-time job as a waiter in a summer hotel. Stepping off the bus in this small mountain town, Ray was dizzy from lack of food, crossed the street into the path of a mail truck . . . and died, still clutching his scrapbook.

Ray's death was a big item for the village paper and the editor, impressed after looking through the worn scrapbook, ran one of Ray's hammy photos on the front page with a story about: "Ray Jones, a motion picture and stage actor, was killed yesterday when he stumbled into the path of a mail truck . . ."

In death Ray finally achieved the dreams, and the reality, he hadn't been able to find in life; he died an . . . "actor."

Whitten Family Reunion Held

The Whitten family reunion, which is composed of descendants and connections of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Whitten of Llanaburg, will hold its 15th annual reunion Saturday July 27, 28 and Sunday at the American Legion Hall in Prescott. A basket lunch and supper will be served both days, and all relatives and friends of the group are invited to be present.

The reunion, which alternates its annual meetings between Prescott and the Seymour, Tex., area, home of other branches of the Whitten family, has a dual set of officers. Those serving for the Arkansas homecoming this year are: John Hunter of Texarkana, president; Mrs. Clarence Bolls of Prescott, vice president; Mrs. Mary Fore of Prescott, recording secretary; Bud Hunter of Prescott, treasurer; and Ellis A. Whitten of El Dorado, corresponding secretary.

Centerville H. D. Club Meets

The Centerville Home Demonstration Club met July 17, in the Community Building with Mrs. E. O. Bright and Mrs. W. C. Beck as hosts.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Vernie Gaynes. The Eyeopener was given by Mrs. Jim Langston on "an easy way to remove foam from jelly."

The opening song was "America" led by Mrs. J. McRoy. The devotion was given by Mrs. E. O. Bright and prayer by Mrs. W. C. Beck.

The lesson was given by Mrs. Jeff Langston on "delergents for Home Laundry."

After the program, cup cakes fourteen members present.

Donna Axum Picked Miss Arkansas

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Donna Axum of El Dorado acknowledged another coveted title to her long list of beauty triumphs when she was named the new Miss Arkansas at the conclusion of the pageant in Hot Springs Saturday night.

The brown-haired, brown-eyed beauty swept honors in swim suit preliminaries and in the talent division. She finished third in the pageant last year.

Miss North Little Rock, Pamela Jane Jackson, was first runner-up, and Miss Harrison, Patricia Diane Pettit, was second runner-up.

Miss Axum, 21, a University of Arkansas senior, stands five feet, 6½ inches, weighs 124 pounds and measures 35-23-36. She was National Cotton Picking Queen in 1962 and Arkansas Forest Queen in 1961. She also has been a poultry princess and "Miss Perfect Posture" at the university.

Other finalists were Kathy Raff, Miss Phillips County; and Tamara Jane Stevens, Miss Stuttgart.

Miss Axum, competing as "Miss El Dorado" scored heavily during a special contest feature when she said "humility" was the main ingredient in the formula for getting along with people.

Pageant officials estimated 8,000 fact, had often turned to him for advice and was easy prey. Yet, don't blame him for I was love-starved.

My husband returned sooner than expected. Through a window he saw me in the arms of his friend, went to the garage where he kept his hunting equipment and, at the most incriminating moment, burst in upon us with the loaded gun. His friend, the stronger, soon disarmed him.

My husband, insisting he still loves me, forgives us both. I am like a trapped animal.

I can think of no better argument against teens going steady than my marriage. The fact that we both had very unhappy childhoods attracted us to one another, propelling us headlong into a hell about which we can do nothing. Or can we? —Despairing.

Dear Despairing: From the very beginning your marriage has been under the gun. So perhaps this might be the critical moment to back up and take a long, searching view of the whole relationship.

As you now realize, the fact that you and your husband both had unhappy childhoods is no basis for a successful marriage. Psychologists have concluded that two people with unhappy backgrounds make a poor marriage risk.

One of the many arguments because he found me in the arms of another man. Luckily he was a poor shot or there might have been a double murder.

These are the facts behind my infidelity: Ours was a forced teenage marriage. Prior to that my husband was the ardent lover. Once married he became the passive and I the dominant force which, being very feminine, went against my character.

Finally, the time came when, though craving love, I could no longer be the aggressor. Then my husband's best friend dropped in. My husband was at his parents. I liked and trusted this friend; I caught her in an act of unfaithfulness, don't pass judgment until you hear her side. I say this for I am a wife who was chased by my husband with a shotgun the papers about a husband taking a gun to his wife because he against teen marriages is that in our society the principals are still growing, and very possibly growing into quite different people from the ones who originally attracted each other. Also, the capacity for selflessness which any successful relationship requires has not usually been sufficiently developed in teens. This capacity, of course, should continue expanding throughout life.

A husband and wife who truly love, will always consider the other first. How do you and your husband rate on this score? There is no need to keep on living in a "hell." You have two ways out. One is to change your fundamental attitude; the other is to dissolve the marriage, if religion permits.

I never heard of a hunter missing such an easy target as you and your lover, which leads me to suspect that your husband had no real intention to kill. He simply wanted to disarm you. Mission accomplished, he in turn was disarmed.

I would hardly call his reaction to the situation passive and non-aggressive.

Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Marital Harmony."

Dear Helen: I like a boy who is 17, I'm 15. He lives in another town so can only come here every other week. I lie to Mama about going to a friend's house when I'm really going to meet him. She won't let me date till I'm 17. What should I do? —Someone Who Cares

Dear Someone: The best judge of your emotional maturity should be your mother. Dating readiness should be based on that criterion, not on a certain age. Evidently your mother doesn't think that you're ready, and since one of the ingredients of maturity is trustworthiness, she may be right.

Stop lying to her, and stop the clandestine meetings with your boy friend. Ask your mother if you can't invite him to your house when he comes to town. I see no reason for her to object to that.

Dear Helen: Come Saturday and my husband insists we go see his Mama, no matter what. We're up at seven a. m., bolt breakfast, jump in the car and race off, back at nine p.m. Sunday is repeat performance. Ever since we build this house he'd been promising to enjoy it with me on weekends. But Saturday arrives and away we race to see his Mama. It's got so I hate to visit my in-laws. My husband reads your column every night. Please print this and maybe he'll take the hint. —Tired

Dear Tired: Tell Mama's boy he's a big boy now that he has a wife and home of his own. Put your foot down firmly on visiting your in-laws every single weekend. Your husband is being selfish and unfair to you. Get out of this monotonous rut by inviting your in-laws to visit you on an occasional Saturday or Sunday.

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Stars Crippled But Yankees Keep Rolling

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

It might be better for the fading opposition in the American League if the pace-setting New York Yankees had Mickey Mantle, Roger Maris and Tom Tresh back in the line-up.

With the three regular members of their formidable outfield out with ailments, all the crippled Yankees did over the weekend was take three straight from Cleveland's vanishing Indians and stretch their lead to seven games, largest bulge of the season.

The reserves, eager as a bunch of high school scrubs trying to earn a letter, have been getting the big hits as the Yankees just roll on.

"I'm afraid to get back in the line-up," joked the mighty Mantle, sidelined with a broken bone in his left foot since June 5. "We are liable to blow 10 straight if I get back."

Mickey is almost ready. Harry Bright, one of the recent brighter lights from the deep Yankee bench, belted important two-run homers Saturday and Sunday and Hec Lopez whacked another.

The Yanks took the Saturday game 5-4 and swept the Sunday doubleheader, 5-2 and 5-4, winning the nightcap in the 11th inning on Bobby Richardson's run-scoring single off reliever Early Wynn.

Far behind the Yanks, the battle for second tightened as the Boston Red Sox nipped the Chicago White Sox 3-2 in 10 innings. The Minnesota Twins edged Washington 3-2. Kansas City topped Baltimore in a third 3-2 affair, and Detroit trounced Los Angeles 8-2 on Frank Lary's comeback victory. A scheduled second Boston-Chicago game was rained out.

Bob Tillman's 10th-inning homer off reliever Hoyt Wilhelm gave the Red Sox their squeaker over the White Sox at Chicago. Dick Stuart's two-run single in the ninth had tied it up for Boston. Dick Radatz, the big Boston flame-thrower who came into the game in the ninth, boosted his record to 12-1.

Minnesota's Don Mincher, another recent escapee of the bench, clouted two homers—his fourth in

Sikes Winner at Camden

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP) — R. H. Sikes of Springdale defeated Richard McCauley 4 and 3 Sunday to win the Ouachita Valley Invitational Golf Tournament at Camden.

The victory was the third for Sikes in the three times he has entered. He defeated Richard Fenwick of Camden 2 and 1 in the semi-finals.

McCauley beat Dan Murphy of Texarkana 2 and 1 to get his birth in the finals. Sikes and McCauley are University of Arkansas golf teammates and were undefeated in conference play last spring. Sikes is the National Collegiate Athletic Association champion.

Travelers Lose Pair to Red Wings

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — The Arkansas Travelers scored only one run in two games Sunday as the Rochester Red Wings swept an International League doubleheader 10-0 and 2-1 at Rochester.

In other International League doubleheaders Columbus defeated Buffalo 10-1 and 4-0; Toronto beat Jacksonville 7-4 and 3-2; Atlanta beat Syracuse 13-2 in the first game and Syracuse took the second 5-1. Richmond beat Indianapolis 8-7 in the only single game Sunday.

Rochester picked up five runs in five hits in the sixth inning of the first game while winner Nelson Chittum held Arkansas to only two hits for the entire game. Both were singles by John Upham.

The victory was Chittum's 11th and his sixth shutout.

Winner Alex Castro held the two days—in the Twins' home victory over Washington. John Goryl followed up Mincher's last homer in the eighth with one of his own for the winning run. The home run also produced the winner at Kansas City as Wayne Causey's sixth-inning blow brought the A's their triumph over the Baltimore Orioles. Causey's homer was better than a birthday cake for Moe Drabowsky who celebrated his 28th birthday with a five-hit win.

Lary stopped the Angels on a four-hitter for his first major league victory in more than a year. The Tigers responded to the noble effort by their old meal-ticket by pounding three Angel fingers for 13 hits.

Fairley Hot But Dodgers Drop a Pair

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

This has been a great year for pitchers.

But you couldn't prove it by their work Sunday in the National League.

There were 183 hits sprayed around and out of NL parks in eight games, including 22 home runs.

The Pittsburgh Pirates rapped out 2 hits in an extra-inning victory. Philadelphia's streaking Phillies collected 29 in a doubleheader sweep over the New York Mets. The Milwaukee Braves got 26 in tripping Los Angeles' front-running Dodgers twice, and both St. Louis and San Francisco ran up big totals.

Strangely enough, the big guy for the day was Ron Fairly, who belted a grand slam, another homer, a double and three singles—for the losing Dodgers.

Milwaukee did in the Dodgers by scores of 7-2 and 13-7, and second-place St. Louis moved up to within six games of the league leaders by trouncing Houston 9-4.

The Phils extended their winning streak to seven and the Mets' losing string on the road to 16, 6-0 and 7-2. Pittsburgh nipped Chicago 6-5 in 14 innings on Jerry Lynch's record-tying pinch homer and Bill Virdon's single. And San Francisco erupted for a 10-5 victory over Cincinnati.

Hank Aaron and Denis Menke homered for Milwaukee in the opener and rookie Bob Sadowski posted his first pitching victory after four losses. The second game was decided by the Braves seven-run fourth inning and Tony Cloninger's tight relief pitching. Joe Torre had a homer and two singles in that one, driving in four runs.

Dick Groat increased his league-leading average to .338 with a double and triple in the Cardinals' romp over the Colts, who now have lost six in a row, 10 of their last 12 and 13 of their last 16. Bob Gibson won his fourth straight for an 11-4 record.

The Phils, who have taken 13 of their last 16, got a four-hit shutout performance from Chris Short in the opening game against the Mets, then Dennis Bennett and Johnny Klippstein combined for a strong job in the second game. Meanwhile, Philadelphia batters unloaded, with five hits each by Johnny Callison and Ruben Amaro leading the barrage. Lynch homered with two on in the last of the ninth inning for the Pirates, tying the Cubs at 5-5, for the 14th pinch homer of his career—matching the big league record set by George Crowe. Then in the 14th, Donn Clendenon and Bob Bailey singled, setting the stage for Virdon's deciding hit off loser Jack Warner. Don Cardwell, loser of the first game, won the second with three innings of one-hit relief.

Paul Toth pitched a seven-hitter for the Cubs in the opener and was backed by Lou Brock's two-run homer.

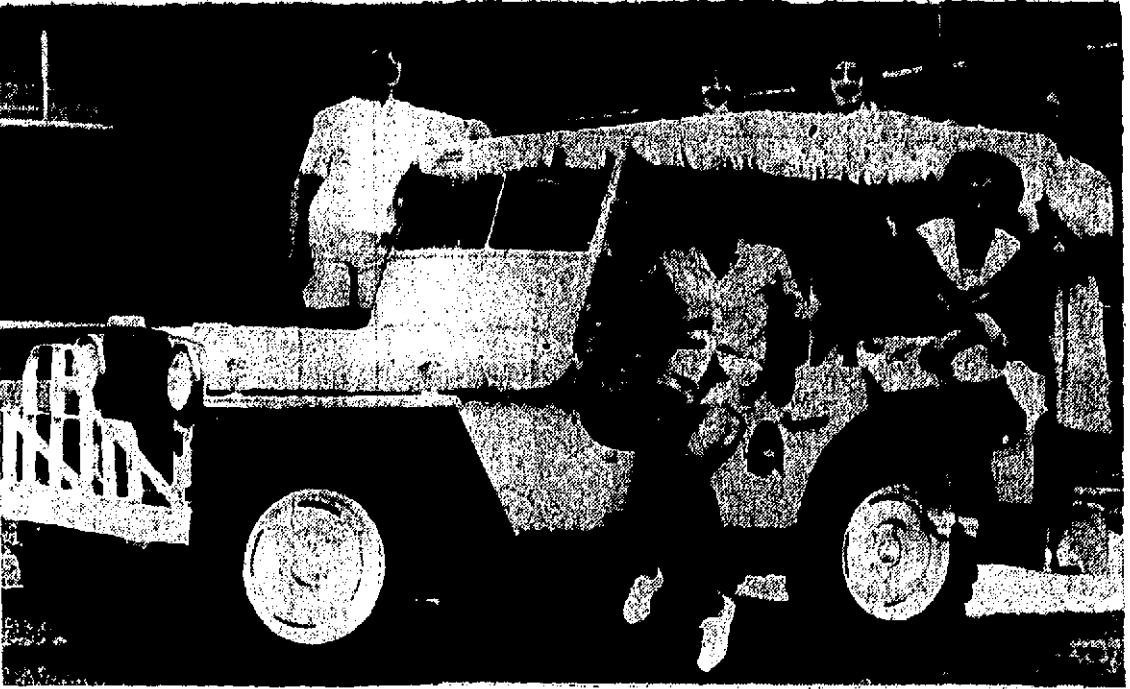

The defending champion Giants, fighting a prolonged slump, cut loose against the Reds. Orlando Cepeda paced the offense with a homer and two doubles for San Francisco, which had won only three of its previous 13 games. Bob Bolin won in relief, while Cincinnati's prize lefty, Jim O'Toole was tagged for his sixth straight defeat and now is 13-9.

Travelers to four hits in the second game and picked up his second victory in four tries.

Castro helped himself out when he broke a 1-1 tie after singling, taking second on a wild pitch and finally stopping at third after a wild throw by Bob Lipski. He scored on a sacrifice fly by Dage Johnson.

Americans Pressed by the Russians

By JIM BECKER

MOSCOW (AP)—When does a winner feel like a loser?

When he beats the Russians by only five points.

The American track and field team scratched out a victory over the Soviet Union in their annual dual meet here Saturday and Sunday by that slim margin, lowest American victory total ever.

But it would be difficult to identify the winners today. The Russians were flashing their thumbs up "hunky dory" signal all over town.

The Americans were gloomy. There were enough sour grapes around to start a vinegar factory.

Targets of American carping included the food in Moscow hotels, some of the athletes themselves and the behavior of some members of the women's team, who reportedly sat around hotel lobbies complaining about life in Moscow, instead of training.

These were the cold facts: The Americans won 12 of the events, the Russians 10. That was the lowest victory margin in the history of the five meets in a series that began in 1958.

The Americans got only the points they expected, and not all of those. None of their hoped-for points materialized.

The Soviets won the 110 high hurdles for the first time, and took seconds in the 100 and 400 meters for the first time. Russian Valery Brumel broke his own world high jump record with a leap of 7 feet 3 3/4 inches.

The Americans lost the 400 meter relay when they were disqualified for blatantly illegal baton passing.

Almost unbelievable disaster struck the women's team in the Soviet meet.

The girls were shipped by the Russians 75-28, lost all 10 events and only took two seconds.

Under the scoring system of 5-3-2-1, with two athletes from each nation in each event, the worst they could have scored was 30 points if they had only walked around the track.

But in probably the worst international showing ever made by an American team, they didn't even achieve that. Two girls were thrown out of races for false starts and one girl fell in the hurdles and didn't finish.

That made the combined score—the one the Russians watch closely—129-147 for the Russians. American 1-2 sweeps in the 200.

Nicklaus Is Winner of PGA Meet

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Big Jack Nicklaus, at the tidy old age of 23 and after a spectacular amateur career, has added the Professional Golfers Association title to his 1962 U.S. Open championship and his 1963 Masters crown. It has left him happy but hungry for more.

"Sure I'm still hungry," the blocky, cherub-faced Columbus, Ohio, heavyweight said after a sizzling 3-under-par 68, capped by a title-winning 30-foot birdie putt on the 69th hole, had brought him from behind to the PGA crown by two strokes over Dave Ragan and three over Bruce Crampton and Dow Finsterwald.

"I'm in this game as a competitor and I want to win every time I play."

"When I get to the stage where I'm not hungry any more, then 400 hurdles, 1500 and discus Sunday, plus a smashing victory in the 1600 meter relay stemmed the Soviet tide.

Dyrol Burleson whipped Tom O'Hara in the stretch run of the 1500, in 3:41—the equivalent of a 3.58 mile.

Henry Carr, who has a pending world record of 20.3, took the 200 in 20.9, with Paul Drayton second.

Veteran Willie Atterberry repeated in the hurdles in 50.4, with Rex Cawley, who led most of the way, second.

The "old pros," Jay Silvester and Rink Babka, finished 1-2 in the discus, although they only got off the plane to join the team Friday night, five days after most of the others had arrived.

Two other late arrivals, Harold Connolly and Parry O'Brien, turned out to be life-savers, too. Connolly won the hammer for the third time in the five meets, and O'Brien was second in the shot to teammate Dave Davis, both on Saturday.

Jim Beatty, the Los Angeles star who was favored to win the 5,000; did not start in the race because of an injured leg muscle. The result was a Soviet 1-2 sweep.

All Stars Meet on Saturday

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas High School All - Stars move into Little Rock next Saturday to begin preparations for the All-Star football and basketball games in Little Rock Aug. 10.

Coaches have urged their charges by letter to report in top condition for the week of two-day workouts preceding the games.

Rush Harding of Clarendon head the East football coaching squad, with Dick Hays of Ashdown heading the west. Don Coston of Monticello is head basketball coach for the East and Joe Dillard of Yellville is cage boss for the West.

PITCHING — Frank Lary, Tigers, hampered by ailing shoulder since 23-victory season in 1961, he won for the first time since June of last year in beating Los Angeles Angels 8-2 with a four-hitter.

BATTING — Don Mincher, Twins, hit two homers for the second straight game in 3-2 decision over Washington.

I don't see much point in playing. I don't think that time will come very soon."

"I've still got plenty to learn about golf," Nicklaus emphasized. "For one thing, I've never learned to get comfortable over a putt."

In his rounds of 69-73-69-68—279 on the 7,046-yard, par 36-33-71 Dallas Athletic Club course Nicklaus used 134 putts, which averages out to slightly more than 33 a round, and about 14 more than Jack's normal putting pace.

Although sub-par golf turned up with more frequency in the third and fourth rounds, only Nicklaus at 279, Ragan at 281 after a closing 69, and Crampton and Dow Finsterwald, at 282 after shooting 74 and 72 respectively, were under par. Willoway Al Geiberger and Billy Maxwell matched it at 284, in a tie for fifth place.

The other two members of the Big Three—Gary Player and Arnold Palmer—had their troubles, although Player came back in the stretch with two good rounds and finished at 286. Palmer, weary and woeful, shot 74, 73, 73—a sufferer's pace for him—and wound up way back at 293.

The game's No. 1 money winner tied for 40th place and won $410. His bankroll dribbled up to $85,995 in official PGA money. Nicklaus, with his $13,000 pot of gold, jumped into second ahead of U.S. Open champ Julius Boros with $75,140.

Liston Still Favorite in Fight Tonight

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Awesome Sonny Liston remained a most formidable favorite to retain the world heavyweight in tonight's fight with Floyd Patterson, the man he utterly wrecked in one devastating round in Chicago last Sept. 25.

Scheduled for 15 rounds, although you can get even money in the Las Vegas gambling parlors that it won't go four, this return encounter goes on at 9:30 p.m., (EST).

A capacity crowd of almost 8,000 will watch in person in the Las Vegas Convention Center, and an undetermined number will view it in more than 140 theater and other outlets around the nation via closed circuit television.

The rematch, one that many thought never would take place, one that many felt shouldn't take place, figures to draw around $250,000 in the live gate and upward of $700,000 from television and movie returns.

This would be far less than the $4 million-plus paid out for the original match, a statistic easily explained by the tick of a stopwatch. The first one lasted two minutes six seconds, third quickest in heavyweight title boxing history.

Liston predicted he would weigh 213-214 pounds, a pound or so under his Chicago weight. Patterson said he hoped to come in at 193, six more than before.

The betting odds in recent days have been 4-1 on 30-year-old Sonny, who now calls Denver his home, and 30-1 the 28-year-old ex-champion won't be around after 15 rounds.

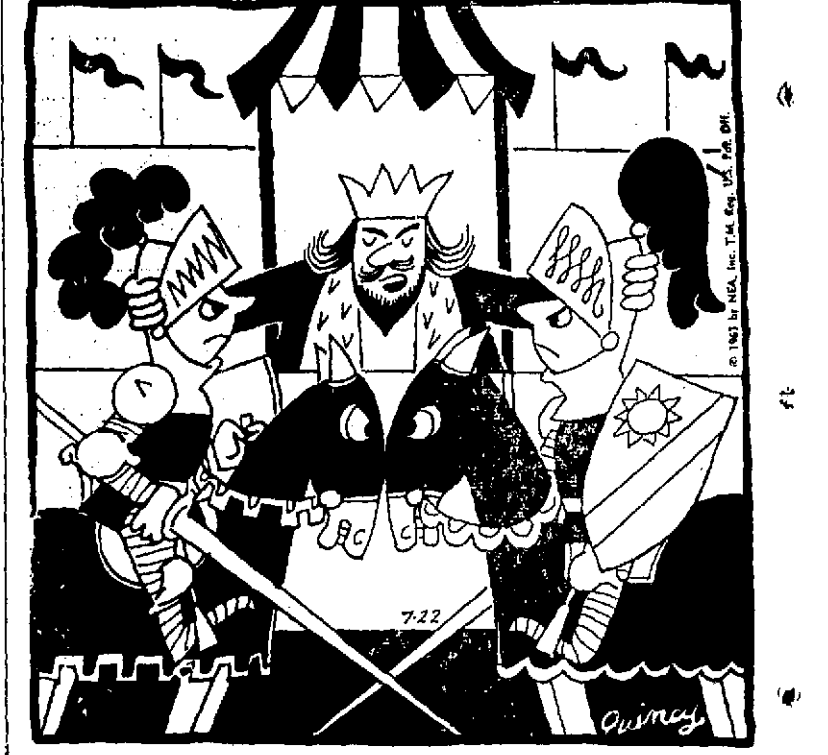

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Facts and figures of the world heavyweight title fight Monday between champion Sonny Liston and Floyd Patterson:

Date—Tonight, July 22
Site — Las Vegas Convention Center.
Time of fight—9:30 p.m., Eastern Standard Time.
